m.sutter@marcuardfamilyoffice.com

Martin Sutter, born in 1966, joined Marcuard Family Office on November 1st 2009, as Managing Director and member of the Management Committee. His assignment strengthens the management in the area of operational execution, this in line with the growth of the company. In this function he will help to enhance the spectrum of services to ensure that we consistently meet our client's expectations in a sustainable way.

From 2004 to 2009, Martin Sutter was a Managing Director at Credit Suisse Private Banking. He was responsible for Brazil and the Bahamas, and at the same time was a member of the Management Committee Private Banking Latin America. Martin Sutter focused on developing and executing the Private Banking strategy within the relevant markets and the leadership of the teams, based in Switzerland, the Bahamas and Brazil.

While employed at Julius Bär from 1988 to 2003, Martin Sutter assumed functions in New York and Zürich for the Trading and Sales Division. After entering the derivatives department, he held various management positions, which focused on building and managing sales and trading teams. The functions comprised all product areas.

Martin Sutter holds a Bachelor of Science and Business Administration from the University of Applied Sciences, Bern (1994). He is a CFA Charter holder (1997) and has attended advanced education courses at the Swiss banking School (AEP2003) and Harvard Business School (AMP173, 2007). He is fluent in German, English and French.
