Jorge Frey joined Marcuard Family Office in 2006 as Managing Director and from 2019 as Senior Partner. From 2003 until 2006, he was a member of the Executive Committee Private Banking at Bank Vontobel in Zurich, heading up the International Private Banking Division. He was mainly responsible for the bank's growth strategies in Latin America, Eastern Europe and Asia. In 2004, he was appointed Senior Vice President.

He joined Bank Vontobel in 1996 as Client Relationship Manager in the Latin American department, initially as an Assistant Vice President. He was promoted to Vice President in 1998. In 1999, he was promoted to First Vice President and Head of Private Banking Latin America. Jorge started his career at Swiss Bank Corporation (now UBS) in Bern. Over a period of 10 years, he held various positions in the areas of portfolio management and private banking, mainly in international division. He spent one year in Paris, two years in New York and three years in Buenos Aires, where he was Head of Private Banking at the bank's representative office.

Jorge holds a Bachelor of Science and Business Administration degree from the Bern University of Applied Sciences, and completed the INSEAD International Executive Program in Fontainebleau in France. He is fluent in German, English, Spanish and French. He is married and has two daughters.
